In the event that the Parties do not agree on a mutually acceptable broker, then each Party will appoint an independent broker and the two so appointed will appoint a third. - d) Unless otherwise agreed in the Contract or the GTC, the Parties understand that demurrage claims could be addressed to the Buyer within 9 (nine) months after the Delivery Date (and the Parties acknowledge this term as reasonable); however, it shall not be considered as time-barred by this Clause. The Parties consider this period reasonable as the Seller usually receives demurrage claims from the Carrier more than 6 (six) months after the Delivery Date.
- e) Demurrage claims shall be considered within 30 (thirty) days after their receipt by a relevant Party and shall be paid by the relevant Party not later than 5 (five) days after receipt of the Seller's invoice. Such substitution shall always be subject to the requirements that a Vessel of a similar size be provided and that the quantity to be loaded shall not, without prior written consent of the other Party, differ by more than the acceptable deviation from the quantity of the Goods as provided in Clause 4.8.4 from the quantity specified in the Nomination. Where a Vessel is substituted, the nominating Party shall send to other Party a revised Nomination in the form set out above.

4.1.7. NOR

Upon arrival of the Vessel at the Place of Destination (the unloading port or customary anchorage or area or such other place as the Vessel may be ordered to await unload) or other closest possible point to the Place of Destination, the Vessel shall tender its notice of readiness (NOR). The Buyer is obliged to ensure his timely presence at Place of Destination at the date of delivery for unloading of the Goods.

The Buyer's (or the Buyer's representative / agent's) absence at the Place of Destination shall not prejudice the fact that the Seller had successfully performed delivery of the Goods for the purpose of the contract.

Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, such conditions shall be deemed to include the provision that where, at any time after loading but before the commencement of unload:

then the Buyer shall indemnify and hold the Seller harmless against any liability, loss, damage, delay or expense that the Seller may sustain by reason of complying with the Buyer's request. The indemnity given by the Buyer to the Seller shall be no less in scope than the indemnity required by the Vessel's owners to comply with the Buyer's request.

4.1.10. The Seller's Right to Refuse

The Seller reserves the right to refuse at any time:

- a) to direct any Vessel to undertake or to complete the voyage to the Place of Destination if such Vessel is required in the performance of the Contract, in the Seller's opinion, to risk its safety or to risk ice damage, or to transit or to proceed or to remain in waters where there is war (whether declared or not), terrorism, piracy or threat thereof; or

If the Seller agrees to direct the Vessel to undertake or to complete a voyage as referred to in this Clause, the Buyer undertakes to reimburse the Seller, in addition to the Total Goods Value payable under the Contract, for all costs incurred by the Seller in respect of any additional, freight, demurrage, insurance premium and any other sums that the Seller may be required to pay to the Vessel's owner including but not limited to any sums in respect of any amounts deductible under such owners' insurance and any other costs and/or expenses incurred by the Seller.

4.1.11. Ice Clause

- a) In case of ice at the Place of Destination or on the voyage to the Place of Destination which directly prevents or hinders safe navigation, the Vessel may only follow a path cut by ice breakers, provided that the master considers such navigation safe. Under no circumstances will the Vessel be obliged to force a path through the ice. If required, the Buyer shall, at its own expense, place icebreakers at the Vessel's disposal.
- b) The Buyer shall reimburse the Seller for:

- i. Any additional insurance premium incurred;
 - ii. The cost of any ice damage incurred less any sum which is recovered under the applicable insurance policy or policies; and Immediately upon receipt of such request, the Buyer shall nominate an alternate ice-free and accessible port or facilities for receiving the Goods, provided that if the Place of Destination is a loading port then such an alternative ice-free and accessible port or facilities shall be agreed with the Seller. - f) In the event that the Buyer orders less Goods than the Planned Monthly Quantity or the Planned Contract Quantity for a relevant period, the Seller at its own discretion may either: (i) agree to supply the outstanding quantity of the Goods in the next period (the supply schedule shall be decided by the Seller, however, the Buyer's suggestions may be taken into account); or (ii) request the payment of 10% (ten per cent) of the Price of the outstanding quantity of the Goods as liquidated damages of the Seller (the Parties agree that the above amount is genuine pre-estimate of liquidated damages the Seller will suffer if the Seller supplies the Goods less than the Planned Monthly Quantity or the Planned Contract Quantity. - d) The inspection results shall be documented in the Inspector's Report and shall be conclusive and binding on the Parties for invoicing purposes, for quality purposes and/or for quantity purposes and shall be final and binding for both Parties, except in case of fraud or manifest error.

- e) In the event that (i) the quality of the Goods does not conform with the contractual Specification or (ii) the quantity of the Goods does not conform the conditions of the Contract, the Parties shall discuss the Buyer's remedies for such non-conforming the Goods. The remedies may include, for example, a price adjustment for the Goods. The outcome of the Parties' discussion shall be documented in a written Amendment.
- f) The costs of the inspection (as per terms of Clauses a) and b)) shall be equally shared between the Seller and the Buyer (and the terminal, if the terminal participates in the inspection). Any other inspections and related services, if required by the Buyer, shall be paid solely by the Buyer; provided, however, that only results of the inspections as provided in Clauses a) and b) will have the final and binding effect on the Parties.

4.19.2. Buyer's default

a) The Seller may, at its sole discretion and in addition to any other legal remedies it may have, upon giving written notice to the Buyer suspend all deliveries under the Contract and/or unilaterally terminate the Contract where:

- i. the Buyer is in breach of any condition of the Contract, including breach of any essential or material conditions of the Contract;
- ii. delivery or unloading of the Goods is delayed due to any cause(s) attributable to the Buyer and such delay is not excused by any other provision of the Contract;

c) Where, pursuant to the provisions of this Clause 4.19.2, the Seller, under the Contract providing for multiple deliveries, temporarily suspends the delivery of the Goods and then decides to resume deliveries under the Contract, the Seller may cancel the suspended delivery and shall be under no obligation to make up for any quantity of the Goods that would have been delivered to the Buyer but for such suspension.

d) Where the Contract provides for multiple deliveries, then the rights given to the Seller in this Clause 4.19.2 apply to all deliveries such that where the Seller is allowed to terminate in respect of one delivery, then it is entitled to terminate all the remaining deliveries.

e) Any termination of the Contract by the Seller shall be without prejudice to the rights and obligations of each Party as accrued on the date of termination.

4.19.3. Seller's default

a) The Buyer may at its sole discretion, and in addition to any other legal remedies it may have, upon giving notice to the Seller terminate the Contract, where the Seller, for any reason whatsoever, is in a material breach of any conditions of the Contract.

- c) Any termination of the Contract by the Buyer shall be without prejudice to the rights and obligations of each Party as accrued at the date of termination.
- d) In the event of termination of the Contract by either Party pursuant to the provisions of Clause 4.19.2 (Buyer's Default) or Clause 4.19.3 (Seller's Default) then, save where the Buyer has terminated only part of a multiple delivery Contract, and in addition to any direct losses arising from the default or breach, the Party so terminating shall be entitled to claim damages from the Party in default as if the Party in default had failed to deliver or failed to accept, as the case may be, such quantity of the Goods as remained to be delivered under the Contract at the date of termination.

4.19.4. Force Majeure

- a) Except in relation to any failure or inability to make a payment due under the Contract, and the Buyer's liability for demurrage due hereunder, (which shall not be excused), neither Party shall be liable to the other Party (non-availability of funds is not meant here) for any delay or non-performance of any obligations under the Contract (other than the payment of money) if such delay or non-performance is (i) due to circumstances reasonably beyond such Party's control, including but not limited to any fires, strikes, lockouts, labour disputes of any kind, partial or general stoppage of labour, breakdown of or accident to the Manufacturer or warehouse or storehouse, machinery facilities, delays of carriers due to break down or adverse weather, embargoes, explosions, floods, drought, war, sabotage, any local or national health emergency, appropriations of property, civil disorders, government requirements, export or import restrictions or limitations, rules, orders or any other acts issued or requested by any governmental or other public authorities or any person purporting to act on behalf of such authorities, civil or military authorities, acts of aggression, terrorism (or the threat thereof), acts of God or of the public enemy or any other causes beyond Party's reasonable control (hereinafter "Force Majeure Event"), and (ii) could not have reasonably been prevented by such Party taking commercially reasonable precautions or customary steps to circumvent or mitigate such circumstances (if and to the extent such events were reasonably foreseeable).

If requested by the Party not affected by a Force Majeure Event, the Parties shall discuss the Force Majeure Event and further steps in order to fulfill the Contract obligations.
- c) The Seller when affected by a Force Majeure Event which prevents or hinders the supply of the Goods to the Buyer or any other customer shall apportion any quantity of the Goods remaining available to it pro rata between itself, the Buyer and third parties (including the Seller's Affiliates) with whom the Seller then has contractual commitments to deliver the Goods, provided that those arrangements were entered into prior to the occurrences of the Force Majeure Event.
- d) In case of a Force Majeure Event declaration, the party affected by it shall have no obligation to acquire by purchase or otherwise any shortfall of the Goods which by reason of Force Majeure Event such party is unable to deliver to the other party under the contract.
- e) If the affected party's inability to perform lasts more than 60 (sixty) days, any Goods, the delivery of which has been prevented by the Force Majeure Event, may be cancelled by either of the Parties by giving of notice to the other. In such cases neither of the Parties will be entitled to claim from the other Party any compensation for possible losses.

- f) A certificate or other document describing the occurrence of the Force Majeure Event issued by the respective Chambers of Commerce of the Seller's or the Buyer's country or of a transit country or any Applicable Authority shall be a sufficient proof of Force Majeure Event and its duration.
- g) In the event that the affected party's inability to perform exceeds three (3) months, the Party not affected by a Force Majeure Event shall, on giving of 30 (thirty) days written notice, have the right to terminate the Contract. Where the Contract is so terminated, neither Party will be entitled to compensation or damages arising from or in connection with this Clause, save in respect of shipments delivered prior to the Force Majeure Event.
